

STAND WITH NAN-HUI: 5 other stories to know

With 5 days left before Nan-Hui's sentencing hearing on April 1st, here are 5 stories of survivors and people at risk of deportation that you should know and follow. These stories echo Nan-Hui's story and deserve to be uplifted.

For more information on how to #standwithnanhui, see here: www.kaceda.org/take-action/

#FreePastorMax

#KeepAdamHome

#FreeNicoll

Nicoll Hernández-Polanco, a Guatemalan trans woman, came to the United States seeking asylum because she was the target of violent attacks, constant harassment and discrimination. However, she is currently being held by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) in an all-male detention facility in Arizona. Join us in seeking justice for Nicoll by demanding that ICE release her from detention!

TAKE ACTION 4
Nicoll!

Max Villatoro, a pastor at the First Mennonite Church in Iowa, was arrested by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on March 3rd. Max was determined to be a priority for deportation because of a criminal record from more than 15 years ago. Religious and migrant groups have rallied to gather over 25,000 signatures and numerous protests on Max's behalf. Despite these efforts, Max was deported to Honduras on March 20th. Join us in raising awareness about Max's case!

TAKE ACTION 4
Pastor Max!

#letROSAstay

Rosa Robles Loreto was pulled over for a minor traffic infraction in 2010, and was consequently placed in detention for by Customs and Border Patrol for 53 days. Through immigration court, Immigration and Customs Enforcement has failed to review her case for administrative closure. In July 2014, Rosa was informed that she would be deported from the United States. Join in fighting for Rosa and ensure she is not deported!

TAKE ACTION 4
Rosa!

Adam Crapser was adopted by an abusive family, who relinquished their parental rights without completing Adam's naturalization. Before his 2nd adoptive placement, he survived a range of abuse in the foster care system. His second set of adoptive parents were arrested and convicted of physical and sexual abuse towards Adam and multiple foster and adoptive siblings. Adam is now building a life with his own family. Adam was informed in February that he would be deported from the United States, and his 1st court date is on April 2nd. Join us in pressuring the ICE Office of Chief Counsel to urge for administrative closure of his case and keep Adam home.

TAKE ACTION 4
Adam!

#FreeOmara

Omara Gomez-Aviles fled civil war and violence from her home country, El Salvador, at the age of 17 and sought asylum in the United States. Omara was apprehended by Immigration and Customs Enforcement on February 22nd, 2015, and was told that her where she was told that her asylum application was denied and that she was being placed into deportation proceedings. Omara's oldest son is graduating in June - join us in fighting for Omara so she can be granted asylum and attend her son's graduation.

TAKE ACTION 4
Omara!